CHARLES F. (Charlie) THOMAS

Chairman of the Board

"Charlie Thomas is the consummate self-made man, a roll-up your sleeves sort of business mogul...at 5-9 he plays above the corporate rim...starting out at age 18 as an auto parts runner for $40 a week, he now owns more than 25 automobile dealerships...and 54 per cent of the Houston Rockets...His money is sunk into real estate, ranching, banking, hotels, insurance and television...He owns a home in River Oaks and another in Pebble Beach, Calif., where he campaigned for close friend Clint Eastwood during the mayoral campaign in neighboring Carmel...In less than four years, he has used his business savvy, and a couple of winning coin flips, to build one of the most envied franchises in the NBA." (HOUSTON POST, Ray Buck, April 27, 1986) For the last two years Charlie Thomas has been expanding his network of automobile dealerships from Austin to Atlanta, but still has had time to dabble in real estate, including a recently acquired specialty retail and office center near The Summit known as the Gardens of Bammel Lane off Kirby Drive.

Charlie Thomas was a quietly successful automobile dealer in the summer of 1982 who has since become a famous successful owner of the Houston Rockets. He purchased the team for around $10 million and has nurtured it to where an August, 1986 Fortune Magazine ranking of pro team values placed Houston in the $31-$35 million category. More recently, the San Antonio Spurs sold for $48 million, giving a more realistic estimate of the Rockets' value.

Entering his seventh season as the Rockets' owner, longer than any of the prior six proprietorships of the team, his style of operation has influenced the complete franchise. He brought in Austin developer Gary Bradley as a 20 per cent owner in 1984 and sold limited partnerships in the remaining 26 per cent of the club.

His management team is headed by 21-year NBA front-office veteran Ray Patterson, who has been President and General Manager of the Rockets for 16 years, and first-year Head Coach Don Chaney. Within four years Thomas saw his team go from the bottom with a 14-68 record to winning the Western Conference with a 51-31 mark before falling in the finals to the Boston Celtics in 1986. The Rockets have made the playoffs each of the last four seasons.

Since his first year as an owner when attendance was an average 7,491, there have been yearly increases to a record sellout mark of 16,611 last season. The Rockets also receive a 49 per cent share of the profits of the Arena Operating Company, plus they also have the rights to selling all signage in the arena. A broadcast package second to none in pro sports completes the package with all games broadcast on KTRH Radio-740, all road games telecast on KTXH-TV 20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable.

Born in Knoxville, Tenn., where he attended the University of Tennessee for two years, he became a Texan in 1956 when he joined an auto agency in Corpus Christi. He purchased his first agency in 1967 in Baytown. He was the 1982 recipient of the "Mr. Sportsman" award given by Interfaith Charities, a joint effort of the B'Nai B'rith and the Knights of Columbus, and was honoree at the Easter Seals Gala in October 1986.

Charlie and his wife Kittsie reside in Houston. They are the parents of three daughters: Kelly; Robin (Mrs. Daniel) Klaes, and Tracy Lee (Mrs. P. Jeffery) Everist.

GARY BRADLEY

Vice-Chairman of the Board

An Austin real estate developer, Gary Bradley, a self-confessed basketball fanatic, purchased a 20 per cent interest in the Houston Rockets, Aug. 15, 1984. Charlie Thomas remains the team's majority shareholder and general partner with a 54 per cent interest while the remaining 26 per cent is shared by 30 limited partners. Both Thomas and Bradley are seen quite frequently at Rockets out of town games in addition to the home contests. Bradley, 40, is a native of Amherst, a town of 825 located 50 miles northwest of Lubbock. He has been an Austin resident the last 20 years since enrolling at the University of Texas where he received his degree in finance. Since graduation he has been involved in the Austin real estate market.

RAY A. PATTERSON

President and General Manager

Ray Patterson is entering his 17th season as the Rockets' chief officer, his 21st in the NBA. This is Patterson's seventh year under club owner Charlie Thomas, his longest term under the same owner. His term as an NBA chief officer is equaled by Jerry Colangelo at Phoenix, surpassed only by Red Auerbach's 36 years with Boston. Of those in the league when Patterson started with Milwaukee and Colangelo at Phoenix in 1968, the only remaining owner is Abe Pollin of Washington, while the only coach left is Jack Ramsay.

Several distinctions belong to Patterson during his NBA tenure. He is the only General Manager in the league's 41 years to have two different franchises in the World Championship series. His 1971 Milwaukee Bucks captured the championship in the quickest leap, three years, from expansion to championship in pro sports history. His 1981 and 1986 Rockets lost in the finals to the Boston Celtics. Only a handful of front office chiefs have been to the finals three times. Patterson's 20 teams have earned 13 playoff berths, including eight of the last 10 seasons. His teams have won four division and three conference championships.

This success on the court is also reflected at the gate as the Rockets broke their single-season attendance record a fourth-straight year with 681,051 fans in 1987-88. Houston has a franchise-record 82 straight home sellouts, including playoffs and exhibitions, going into the 1988-89 season. Patterson has helped cultivate a following for the team from an attendance low of 3,855 per game in 1973-74 to last season's record sellout mark of 16,611 (the first year in franchise history every home game sold out). The last four Rockets' teams have become members of an elite group of NBA franchises to combine for over a million in home and road attendance.

Patterson has been the unifying force behind the Rockets in Houston, joining the team in 1972 in its second season in Texas. He is just the third general manager in the 22-year history of the franchise which started in San Diego in 1967. Jack McMahon was the first Rockets' general manager in 1967-68, and he was followed by Pete Newell who served three years until 1972.

Under Patterson, the Rockets have an aggressive marketing package which supplements one of the finest broadcast packages in pro sports. All games are broadcast on KTRH Radio-740. Long-range agreements have been signed for the telecast of all road games on KTXH-TV 20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable. The Rockets also own the rights to sell signage in the arena.

Fortune Magazine ranked the values of pro sports teams in the last few years, and listed the Rockets among the Top Eight in the NBA with a $31-$35 million value reflective of market size, management, marketing and competitiveness. This last summer the San Antonio Spurs sold for $48 million, giving a more realistic estimate of the Rockets' value. An indication of just how far Patterson has guided this franchise is the Rockets' total attendance in 1973-74 was 158,059, with the highest ticket priced at $6.

Born in Lafayette, IN, Patterson holds Bachelor and Masters degrees from the University of Wisconsin where he was a four-year varsity basketball letter winner. He was team captain and MVP his final two seasons, and as a senior edged Arnie Risen of Big 10 champion Ohio State as first-team all-conference center. Patterson played two seasons of pro basketball with the Flint, MI, team in the National Basketball League. He returned to his prep school, Wayland Academy in Beaver Dam, WI, as basketball coach in 1949. He was named President and Headmaster of the school in 1954. He became the first President of the Milwaukee Bucks in 1968 and after four years there came to Houston as President and General Manager in May 1972. He also serves on the Board of the South Main Bank.

Ray and his wife, Ruth, reside in Sugar land. They have three sons and two daughters: Pat, a Princeton graduate; Steve, Liz, Peg and Pete, all University of Texas graduates. Steve, an attorney, is counsel for the Rockets and responsible for the club's internal operations.

DON CHANEY

Head Coach

"This is a man who can take us where we want to go," Rockets' Owner Charlie Thomas, June 14, 1988, Houston Post.

Don Chaney became the eighth head coach in the Rockets' 22-year history on June 13, 1988.

The former University of Houston star (1965-68) was an assistant coach at Atlanta last season. He was the Los Angeles Clippers' head coach (1985-87), an assistant coach for the Clippers (1983-85), and an assistant at Detroit (1980-83) after ending a professional career that spanned 12 seasons (1968-80).

Atlanta General Manager Stan Kasten had this to say about the 42-year-old Chaney, "When we hired him we couldn't expect to keep him long. He's a fine coach and one of the warmest, most wonderful human beings you will ever be around. Chaney's personality is very important. His sincerity is why he gets along so well with players. It's one of the main reasons he will be very, very successful in Houston."

Chaney played 11 seasons in the NBA, one in the ABA after being the 12th pick in the first round of the 1968 draft by Boston. Chaney spent seven seasons with the Celtics (1968-75), before playing one season with the St. Louis Spirits (1975-76). He returned to the NBA in 1976-77 with the Los Angeles Lakers and then was traded back to Boston in December of 1977 where he finished his career.

A five-time second-team All-NBA defensive selection, Chaney is the only player in Celtics' history to have played with Bill Russell and Larry Bird. Boston, Chaney's favorite team as a youngster, won the NBA title in his rookie season (1969), which was the last time a team had won consecutive championships until the Lakers accomplished this feat the last two seasons.

Midway through his second season, Chaney teamed with Jo Jo White as the starting guards and they helped lead Boston to an NBA championship in 1974. After his one season at St. Louis, the ABA was no more and four teams joined the NBA--St. Louis folded. Chaney signed with the LA Lakers as a free agent. That Lakers' team lost to Portland and the Walton Gang in the Western Conference finals.

Los Angeles traded Chaney and Kermit Washington to Boston for Charlie Scott in December 1977. Near the end of his final season, 1979-80, a hamstring injury sidelined him for the year. Boston's coach, Bill Fitch, asked Chaney to go scout an opponent.

"The interest to coach started there," the Baton Rouge, LA, native said.

He is beginning his 21st year in pro basketball, and possesses a rich background in the game. Consider a few of his former teammates--Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Moses Malone, John Havlicek, Dave Cowens. He roomed with Don Nelson in Boston and played for Jerry West in Los Angeles.

It all started in Baton Rouge where he played for McKinley High's Carl Stewart where he averaged 26 points a game his senior season. Then he, and Elvin Hayes became the first blacks to play basketball at University of Houston in 1964. The Cougars controlled the town during a three-year span that saw the Hayes-Chaney duo lead them to an 81-12 record and two Final Four appearances. UH was ranked No. 1 in the nation in 1968 and won 31 straight games before losing to UCLA in the national semifinals.

Chaney and Hayes were also part of college basketball history on Jan. 20, 1968 in the Astrodome when they led the Cougars to a 71-69 win over UCLA to take over the No. 1 ranking in the nation. This was the first regular-season major college game to be nationally televised, plus it was the largest regular-season crowd (52,693) to witness a college game. Chaney played all 40 minutes, scored 11 points, had six rebounds and made three key steals in the last five minutes to help pull out the win.

"The UCLA game stands out more than anything," Chaney said of his entire basketball career. I run into people who remember me for that--and I played 12 years (in the pros)."

Chaney was a second-team AP, UPI All-America selection his senior season.

He lists among his hobbies, fishing, racquetball and restoring antique cars. His sports fantasy is sky diving.

Chaney is married (wife Jackie), they have one son (Michael) and two daughters (Donna and Kara).

CARROLL DAWSON

Assistant Coach

"CD" begins his ninth season with the Rockets, working with his third head coach (Del Harris 1980-83, Bill Fitch 1983-88). A "True Texan", Dawson hails from Alba, population 200, about 75 miles east of Dallas. As a 6-foot-5 center he led Alba High to an incredible 44-3 record as a senior. He then went on to win Junior College All-America honors at Paris, TX, under Head Coach Boyd Converse. Dawson earned All-Southwest Conference honors at Baylor his senior season when he averaged 16.4 points, and 8.8 rebounds in 1960. Dawson, who led the Bill Henderson's Baylor Bears in scoring and rebounding both seasons, averaged 13.3 points and 7.3 rebounds his junior year. In 1963 he returned to Baylor as an assistant to Head Coach Bill Menefee. He succeeded Menefee as head coach in 1973 and remained for 3 1/2 seasons. Dallas Cowboys' executive Gil Brandt hired Dawson as a scout for the football team, but a year later Dawson entered the business world as a salesman for Converse Shoe Company. A bachelor, Dawson resides in Houston and ranks among the top golfers in the coaching profession.

RUDY TOMJANOVICH

Assistant Coach

Rudy T. is entering his sixth season as a Rockets' assistant coach, his 19th season with Rockets. He spent his entire 11-year NBA career with the Rockets, and was a scout for two years following his retirement in 1981. Calvin Murphy (23) and Tomjanovich (45) are the only Rockets to have their numbers retired. His 13,383 points ranks him second to Murphy on the Rockets' all-time list, while his 6,198 rebounds place him behind only Elvin Hayes and Moses Malone. He averaged better than 20 points a game four different seasons, with a high of 24.5 in 1973-74. Five times he was selected to play in the NBA All-Star game, including a starting spot in the 1979 game at Pontiac, Mich., after he came back from a facial fracture suffered in December, 1977. He was a fixture at starting forward for the Rockets his first nine seasons. He led the team in scoring four times, rebounding once and in field goal percentage five times. He had a .501 career field goal percentage. A native of Hamtramck, MI, he graduated from the University of Michigan where he is that school's all-time leading rebounder (1,089), and third highest scorer (1,808) behind Mike McGee and Cazzie Russell. Since 1974, Michigan's Most Improved Player Award has been named after him. Rudy and his wife Sophie reside in Southwest Houston with daughters Nicole 15, and Melissa 12, and son Rudy III, 5.

JOHN KILLILEA

Assistant Coach/Player Personnel

Killilea, who joined the Rockets Aug. 1, 1988, brings 14 years of NBA experience into this newly created position that will see him concentrate on scouting the colleges and pro teams. Killilea was an assistant coach for Boston, Milwaukee and New Jersey (1971-85); he retired after the 1984-85 season for one year and then returned as head coach of the CBA's Topeka Sizzlers the last two seasons. This will be a reunion with first-year head coach Don Chaney as Killilea was an assistant for Boston from 1971-72 through the 1976-77 seasons--Chaney was the Celtics' starting guard during that time frame. Boston won five division titles and two NBA championships in Killilea's six seasons (1974, 1976 championships). Then he joined Milwaukee's Don Nelson as assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel from 1977-78 to 1982-83--the Bucks won four division championships in his last four seasons. Then he spent two seasons with New Jersey (Stan Albeck was the head coach)--in 1984 the Nets eliminated the defending NBA champion Philadelphia 76ers from the playoffs. Prior to joining the Celtics Killilea coached 18 years at five high schools in Maine and Massachusetts, compiling a 325-85 record (.793). His teams won six state championships in nine visits to the playoffs. He was voted Maine coach of the year (1957), and is a member of both the Maine Hall of Fame (1975) and Massachusetts Basketball Hall of Fame (1976). During his last two years as a high school coach he also found time to do some scouting on a parttime basis for Milwaukee Bucks' coach Larry Costello. A 1952 Boston University graduate, Killilea also holds a Master's Degree in Educational Administration from Salem (MA) State. Recognized as one of the game's premier clinicians, he has conducted camps and coaching sessions throughout the world the last 20 years. He and his wife Eli reside in Brookfield, WI.

RAY MELCHIORRE

Trainer, Traveling Secretary

Melchiorre is in his second season with the Rockets, his 18th in professional basketball after becoming only the second trainer/traveling secretary in Houston Rockets' history in August 1987. He succeeded Dick Vandervoort who passed away July 4, 1987 while at his farm in Maryland. Prior to joining Houston, Melchiorre spent eight seasons with Boston, six with the Buffalo Braves and two with the Pittsburgh Condors (ABA). His flexibility program resulted in a dramatic reduction of muscle strains and related injuries over his tenure with Boston. He was only the fifth trainer in the 42-year history of the Celtics. The Philadelphia native is a 1970 graduate of Bethel (McKenzie, TN) College, where he was head trainer and baseball coach for four years. Melchiorre is a member of the National Trainers Association and licensed Texas Athletic Trainer Association. He has taught athletic injury courses at the University of Buffalo, Canisius College and Buffalo State College. During the summer Ray continues his work and stays busy with camps throughout the United States--plus making speaking appearances. Melchiorre was the East's trainer for the 1983 NBA All-Star game, and will be the host trainer for the 1989 game in Houston. Ray and his wife Liz reside in Houston. They have a son, Michael, and two daughters, Kathy and Lisa.

ROCKETS ON THE AIR

One of professional sports most complete broadcast packages is enjoyed by the Houston Rockets. All games are broadcast on KTRH Radio-740 AM, while all road games are telecast by KTXH TV-20 and all home games cablecast by Home Sports Entertainment (HSE).

As part of the NBA television package, the Rockets will make two appearances on CBS, and will be seen three times on TBS. A weekly Rocket radio show, "Inside the Rockets" featuring team President and General Manager Ray Patterson, is heard one hour before tipoff on weekend games.

The Radio Team

Gene Peterson, who is entering his 14th season as Voice of the Rockets, will be joined on all broadcasts for a second straight year by Rockets' Director of Communications, Jim Foley.

Peterson joined the Rockets in 1975 and has broadcast 1,066 regular season and 84 playoff games without a miss. The Albert Lea, MN, native studied broadcasting at Brown Institute in Minneapolis. After Air Force duty he began his radio career at WECL, Eau Claire, WI. He also worked at KOB, Albuquerque, NM; KCMO, Kansas City, MO; and KPRC, Houston, before joining the Rockets. Gene and his wife, Marsha, reside in Kingwood—they have two sons, Todd, 25, and Paul 16, plus one daughter, Jennifer, 22. One of the top golfers in the broadcast ranks, the Houston Irish Open Tournament has borne his name for the last four years despite his Scandinavian background.

Foley, who is beginning his 20th NBA season (16 Houston, 3 Milwaukee), was the Rockets' Director of Public Relations for 15 years after serving in that position three years with the Milwaukee Bucks. He was promoted to Director of Communications in August, 1987. The Marquette University graduate comes from LaSalle, IL. Following school, he served as an officer in the Navy for four years, and began his public relations career with the New York Central Railroad in Chicago. He was named Sports Information Director in 1965 at Marquette where he worked for four years before joining the NBA Bucks in 1969. He is active in area Irish activities, including Houston's annual St. Patrick's Day Parade. He is also an avid golfer. He and his wife Carolyn reside in Houston.

The TV Team

Ron Franklin and Tom Nissalke join "native Houstonians" Bill Worrell and McCoy McLemore to describe all the Rockets' action in 1988-89. Worrell and McLemore will do all the home games on HSE. Franklin and Worrell will split play-by-play duties on the road on KTXH-TV 20, with Nissalke handling the color.

Worrell is a graduate of Lamar High and University of Houston where he played varsity baseball. He began his broadcast career at Houston's KPRC-TV 2 in 1970, and was that station's Sports Director from 1974 through 1980. He has been HSE's Sports Director since it began operation in 1982. He has done play-by-play not only for the Rockets but also for the Astros, and Oilers—plus college football and basketball. He has been involved with Rockets' telecasts on Channel 20 and HSE for the last three seasons after having done play-by-play on Rockets' telecasts for KHTV-39 in 1980-81 and 1981-82. A bachelor, he also is one of the fine golfers associated with the Rockets.

McLemore graduated from Jack Yates High School in Houston, Moberly (MO) Junior College and Drake (Iowa) University. He was a third-round draft pick of the San Francisco Warriors in the 1964 NBA draft and also played at Chicago, Phoenix, Detroit, Cleveland, Milwaukee and Houston, ending his pro career in 1972. He was a member of Bill Fitch's expansion Cleveland team in 1970, but ended the season a member of the 1971 NBA champion Milwaukee Bucks as a result of a trade engineered by then Bucks' General Manager Ray Patterson. It was during that 1970-71 season that McLemore played 86 games, which is the third highest single-season total in league history (Walt Bellamy 88 in 1968-69, Tom Henderson 87 in 1976-77 are the only two to have played more games in one season).

Franklin is not a stranger to Rockets' fans. The former Voice of the Oilers, was Sports Director at KHOU-TV 11 and KPRC-TV 2 for 15 years before going to Austin in 1987 where he handles most of University of Texas' broadcast work through Ron Franklin Productions. Beside Rockets' telecasts Franklin will do play-by-play on nearly all UT radio basketball broadcasts, eight to 10 Southwest Conference basketball games for Raycom Television, the NCAA Regionals for CBS radio, and will be the host voice for the Final Four radio. Franklin will also do six Raycom football games, and radio play-by-play on eight of UT's football games, and three of the Longhorns' TV games.

Nissalke is quite familiar with Houston as he coached the Rockets to their first division championship in 1976-77. He was the Rockets' head coach for three seasons, compiling a 124-122 record. Nissalke spent 16 seasons in professional basketball, 14 as a head coach. His teams won 370 games as he coached five years in the ABA (Dallas-San Antonio and Utah), and nine years in the NBA (Seattle, Houston, Utah and Cleveland). He was named NBA Coach of the Year in 1976-77 for leading Houston to a 49-33 record and a Central Division title; he was ABA Coach of the Year at San Antonio in 1971-72. He is one of only three coaches in pro history to have been selected coach of the year in both leagues (Alex Hannum, Bill Sharman). Tom, who co-owns Green Street Social Club in Trolley Square in Salt Lake City, resides in Utah's capital city with his wife Nancy. They have a son, Tom II a senior Civil Engineering major at University of Utah; and a daughter, Holly a senior pre-law major at University of Utah.

1987-88 NOTES

FOUR STRAIGHT

Houston earned its fourth straight trip to the playoffs, and a franchise first fourth straight winning season as it compiled a 46-36 record to finish fourth in the Midwest Division--this represents an eight-game improvement over 1986-87 when the Rockets finished 42-40.

FRANCHISE RECORD CONTINUES

Houston extended its franchise-record consecutive sellout streak to 82 (this includes playoffs and exhibitions)...and for the first time in franchise history Houston sold out every regular-season game with a record 16,611 average...the Rockets also set a regular-season attendance record for the fourth straight year as they drew 681,051 fans... this is the third straight season the Rockets have topped 600,000...it is also the fourth straight season they have played before one million fans home and road combined.

SINCE THE TRADE

At approximately 10:33 PM (CST), Dec. 12, the Houston Rockets acquired Joe Barry Carroll and Eric "Sleepy" Floyd from the Golden State Warriors for Ralph Sampson and Steve Harris. This marked the first time in league history two No. 1 picks in the NBA Draft (Carroll 1980, Sampson 1983) had been involved in one trade. Houston was 11-8 before the trade-- after The Trade it was 35-28, 24-8 In The Summit and 11-20 on the road.

Over the first 19 games the Rockets were shooting .758 from the line last season...Since The Trade Houston shot .786--no Rocket shot less than .726, three shot .860 or better.

HONORS

Akeem Olajuwon earned first team All-NBA honors for the second straight season, plus he was voted a starter on the West All-Star team a second straight season...Akeem and Rodney McCray were selected to the NBA's first-team all-defensive squad...Olajuwon was the only player to rank among the Top 10 in four statistical categories in the league last season (scoring, rebounding, blocked shots and steals)...this marked the second time in Rockets' history this has been accomplished--the last was 1973-74, Calvin Murphy (field goal percentage, free throw percentage, assists, steals).

THE TEAM

The Rockets had the second lowest field goal percentage defense (.465) in the league last season, which marks the highest they have ever finished in this category...Houston went from 16th in scoring offense (106.9) in 1986-87 to ninth (109.0) last season, but it went from third in scoring defense (105.9) in 1986-87 to 13th (107.6) last season--this still marked the third time out of the last four seasons it has yielded less than 110 points per game.

Houston averaged 46.0 rebounds per game to rank second in the NBA last season--this was the Rockets highest per game average since 1976-77 when they grabbed 47.4 per outing...Houston had 502 blocked shots, the fifth straight season it has blocked 500 or more shots.

The Rockets shot .780 from the line to rank sixth in the league, this marked their highest team total since the 1978-79 squad made .792 from the line...only one Houston player (Olajuwon) shot less than .700 from the line in 87-88.

12 different lineups were used in 1987-88...Houston has won 45 or more games in three of the last four seasons--six times in franchise history (all within last 12 seasons, in Houston)... Houston had 30 home wins for the fourth time in franchise history (36-5 in 1985-86; 34-7 in 1976-77 and 30-11 in 1978-79).

WHEN...

Houston outscored opponents in the last two minutes of games it went: 27-17

Houston had 50 or more rebounds it went: 18-4

ROCKETS' NOTES

Moses Malone put together the greatest individual scoring streak in Rockets' history when he scored 30 points or more in 13 straight games (Jan. 26, 1982 through Feb. 23, 1982)...Houston won 11 of these games as Malone averaged 37.5 points and 17.5 reb, while shooting .573 from the field (188-328) and .748 from the line (110-147)...at one point the Rockets won eight straight games...Moses topped 40 points four times during this streak, plus he grabbed 20 rebounds or more six times. Here's a closer look at this tremendous performance:

39th Annual NBA All-Star Game

This is the second time the Rockets' franchise will host the All-Star game. The first occasion was Jan. 12, 1971 at San Diego's International Sports Arena before 14,378 fans as the West won 108-107. Kareem Abdul-Jabbar sank a five-foot jumper, was fouled on the play and converted the free throw with 48 seconds left to play to give the West its win. Player-coach Lenny Wilkens of the Seattle SuperSonics gained MVP honors in the 21st annual game after leading the West with 21 points in 20 minutes on 8-for-11 shooting from the field and 5-5 accuracy from the line. It was Wilkens who led a 14-1 surge late in the game that helped the West to victory. The West's coach was Larry Costello, the East's coach was Red Holzman. Rockets' star Elvin Hayes played 19 minutes, scoring 10 points and grabbing 4 rebounds.
